Walk description / difficulty	Easy walking at gentle pace through Alresford and alongside the River Arle, before walking along a section of the Wayfarer's Walk which is a bit stoney. (also known as the Watercress Way). We walk on one short stretch of a quiet country lane before ambling alongside fields which take us into Old Alresford and back along the River Arle into the centre of Alresford. There is only one gentle ascend and then descend by a field.
Terrain	Foot paths alongside River Arle, through Wayfarer's Walk and across fields. Short section of quiet road walking
